

Pioneer remains to be reburied

4-14-87

The remains of 33 pioneers and a single prehistoric Fremont Indian found buried at a downtown Salt Lake City construction site will be transferred from their museum curation boxes to caskets by the BYU Office of Public Archaeology Thursday and Friday in Provo.

BYU archaeologists will be working at 2200 North Canyon Road (the former Albertson's building) from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days.

The caskets will then be sent to Salt Lake to be buried in vaults in

Molini waives court hearing

By MARGARET HAMMERLAND
Herald Staff Writer

A former Brigham Young University football player will be arraigned April 24 on charges of obtaining a controlled substance by fraud or misrepresentation.

Trevor Molini, 21, Reno, Nev., appeared in 8th Circuit Court on Monday. He waived his preliminary hearing, so he will be bound over to Fourth District Court to enter a plea.

The charge carries a maximum penalty of up to five years in the Utah State Prison and a $5,000 fine.

Molini and former teammate Steve Sanders, 22, Orange, Calif., were arrested last Thursday evening after a pharmacist at Swal-
